

Add-on Spouse Membership Application

In addition to initiation fees (which covers safety class), and Annual membership dues, continuing NRA membership is required as part of Annual membership in Triad Training Gun Club. Before being issued a membership card, new members must complete a New Member Safety and Orientation class regarding the policies and range rules of Triad Training Gun Club. Passing a basic manipulations test displaying knowledge of gun handling will be required after completion of this class. Member will be in a probationary period of three months. After completing one year as a Conditional member, in good standing, membership is attained.

I request Conditional membership for Triad Training LLC, Gun Club. As part of my contract of membership I agree to comply with all Policies and Procedures of Triad Training LLC Gun Club.
